SIXTH AVENUE, 21ST TO 22D ST.

Failed to Appear to Prosecute Detective Sheridan.

Chief Smith, of Jersey City, Said to Have "Seen" Him.

Superintendent Byrnes to Look Into the Case.

There was an unusually large crowd to the Tombs Police Court this morning, the predominant element being habitues of pool-rooms, race track touts and friends of Capt. O'Connor's Ward Detective George Sheridan, who is under arrest for brutally clubbing John J.

arrest for brutally clubbing John J.
Lynch, of Jerrey City, in Harry Psynton's pool-room in the Merchants' flotel, Cortlandt street, Tuesday evening.
Sheridan was practically not under arrest until this morning. The warrant charging aggravated assault was issued by Justice Taintor, in the pelice court peeterday afternoon, and it was given to Roundsman Campbell, of the Caurt Squad, to serve. The roundsman found the detective at the Church street police station at 6 o'clock and executed service by simply telling Sheridan to appear in court this morning. He arrested Lawler and looked into up for the disht. On being arready in the same of the same the particle of the first there was some money due to him.

he is charged with a serious offense and a warrant had been issued for his arrest, Roundsman Campbell refused to explain further than that Sheridan was r. public official and there was no fear of his running away.

The complation, Lynch for 1 to no pear when the case was called to no "He will be here."

"He will be here."

"O'Nell, counsed for Lynch. He was with me at 10 o'clock hast hight. Your Honor, and I suppose he slept a little No.

Joe Moss, of Howe & Hummel's office stated that Mr. Howe had been retained to defend Sheridan, but was engineed it another court his morning. "I have been instructed to ask for an adjournment," continued Mr. Moss, "institl to-morrow, as Mr. Moss, "institl to morrow, as Mr. Moss, "institl to more than the morrow of the morrow of the morrow, as Mr. Moss, "institl to more the morrow, as Mr. Moss, "institl to more the morrow of the another court this morning.

"I have been instructed to ask for an adjournment," continued Mr. Moss, "until to-morrow, as Mr. Howe desires to give his personal attention to the case."

Lawyer O'Neill consented to an adjournment, but insisted that Shersian should be placed under bad. The prisoner was however, paroled in the custody of Capt. O'Connor, who was not present. A half dozen witnesses to the assault were present really to testify to the truth or Lynch's allegations that the assault was brutal and unprovoked. They were much disappointed at the complainant's non-appearance.

Lawyer O'Neill promised that Lynch would appear to-morrow and that in the event of his failure to do so, steps would be taken to compel him to be prosent.

"He told me last night," said Mr. O'Neill, "that Chief of Police Smith. O' Jersey City, had called on him to drop the matter. Other witnesses residing in Jersey City also received visits from Chief Smith, but the Superintendent's importunities failed of effect."

There is a suspicion that Lynch, who practically has a monopoly of the milk business in Jersey City has eitner been intimidated by the police or else been "faxed" by the friends of the accused detective. The police could make if exceedingly unpleasant for him if they desired, and for that reason it is strongly suspected he has concluded to drop the prosecution.

Bhould he fail to appear to-morrow, Lawyer O'Meill will proceed to have him punishust. The case will not end there, forcears each woold sheridants club.

Bill for a Fifth District Court Called a Tammany Job.

The Present Structure One of the THE GOODS THEY WANT FROM US. Best in the City.

The centre building is occupied and used for court purposes.

It was but a few years ago that a number of improvements were made which were so extensive as to necessitate the city leasing quariers on Suffolk, near Grand street, to be used for court purposes, while the alterations were being made. Among other improvements was a new addition to the ground floor which called for the expenditure of a large sum.

Up to the present time not one city official has entered a protest against the job, though the tax-payers of the district are very bitter over the matter.

The Assembly Committee on Cittes has already reported favorably on the
